

RURAL DEVELOPMENT OF CHILD EDUCATION & WOMEN EMPOWERMENT

HELP ILLUMINATE LAMJHARI'S HÖ!
EMPOWERING THROUGH EDUCATION

IMAGINE A WORLD WHERE EVERY CHILD HAS THE CHANCE TO LEARN AND THRIVE, REGARDLESS OF THEIR CIRCUMSTANCES...

Basmati Gagrai

Managing Trustee & Founder Chairperson

In Lamjhari, a remote forest cluster in West Singhbhum District, Jharkhand, this dream is being nurtured by HÖ tribal community's Ms. Basmati Gagrai - a beacon of hope amidst deep-rooted poverty and social neglect.

In 2016, Basmati started a school under a humble tree. She founded a public charitable trust - the Rural Development of Child Education & Women Empowerment (RDCEWE) in 2020, that strives to break the cycle of poverty through education, offering classes from pre-nursery to middle school.

Currently supported by seventeen dedicated teachers, 327 impoverished children receive free education and mid-day meals.

Despite these commendable efforts, the school faces significant challenges in meeting the operational expenses and infrastructure.

With limited resources, Basmati's financial sustenance in her journey to empower the Hô community's children remains an uphill battle.

Your contribution can make a profound difference. Your support will help us provide better facilities, expand educational programs, and ensure a brighter future for Lamjhari's children.

Please join us in creating a more inclusive society where every child has access to the light of opportunity. Together, we can build a world where no community is left in the dark.
